

FAMILY WIPED OUT.

Mrs. Broderick and Three Children Burned to Death.

Terrible Tragedy in a Burning Harlem Shanty.

Mother and Children's Charred Corpses Lay in One Smoking Bed.

A fire in a little one-story and attic shanty in Harlem early this morning did only $500 damage so far as property was concerned, but it cost four human lives. The dead are: ANNE SULLIVAN BRODERICK, aged twenty-six years.

MAMIE BRODERICK, aged five years. RICHARD BRODERICK, aged eighteen months. JAMES BRODERICK, aged nine months.

Mrs. Anne Broderick was a pretty widow, and the death of her husband two years ago left her dependent on her own resources, with two little mouths to feed. She worked early and late at housework and washing and managed to keep a neat but humble home for her family, and in order to increase her slender income took little John from the Foundling Asylum at Sixty-seventh street to nurse. The other children were her own.

Every member of the little family is dead. A few weeks ago Mrs. Broderick moved into the shanty back of P. J. Turley's saloon, at 67 East One Hundred and Eighty-third street. The shanty has an extension between it and the saloon and store building and on the other side was a stable, where Mr. Turley kept his horse. He owns all the buildings.

Barney McPhillips, a laboring man, lives in the extension with his wife and five children. He was restless last night and did not sleep well. About 3 o'clock this morning he heard a sort of hissing sound, "something like a sky-rocket," and got up and looked out of the window to see what was the matter.

He was horrified to see the shanty in one mass of flames. Quickly awakening his wife he hurried out the children, and grabbing up a few articles of clothing, fled for their lives through the little yard into the vacant lot outside.

McPhillips thought of Mrs. Broderick. At the top of his voice he shouted:

"Mrs. Broderick! Throw me out the children! I'll catch them!"

There was no reply. McPhillips knew that the family slept in the attic and he grew desperate. He is a big, strong man and he threw his whole weight against the door, but was unable to start it. Then he saw that Mrs. Turley, who by this time had arrived, was standing in the doorway.

THE CITY OF CHICAGO GONE.

She Broke in Two Amidships Early This Morning.

Abandoned to Her Fate Last Night
When Hope Had Fled.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

LONDON, July 7.—The cessation in the gale off the south coast of Ireland yesterday was only a lull in the storm. Afterwards the wind shifted and blew with renewed fury.

The sea ran at a tremendous height, making a clean breach over the stranded liner City of Chicago, which ran ashore near the Old Head of Kinsale.

The steamer continued to pound heavily, and there was every indication that she was doomed to certain destruction. The outlook became worse and worse, and finally last night orders were given for all hands to abandon ship.

The officers and crew were all ready for this, and in a short time they went ashore, being assisted by the life-saving crew and the coast guardsmen, and the steamer was left to her fate.

At 2 o'clock this morning she broke in two amidships and the after portion went down in twelve fathoms of water. When she was abandoned last night water was pouring over her boilers and filling the engine-room.

The human line ship City of Chicago ran on the rocks off Kinsale Head, about twenty miles southwest of Queenstown, at 6 o'clock on the evening of July 6.

Her passengers were taken ashore, and a great pile of lumber and a six-foot ladder to the ship were sent to the shore.

The greater part of the cargo, valued at $200,000, was also taken ashore. Her passengers were taken ashore, and a great pile of lumber and a six-foot ladder to the ship were sent to the shore.

She was built in 1887 by the City of Chicago, and was launched on July 1, 1887. She was a steel-hulled steamship, 430 feet in length, 45 feet beam, and 35 feet depth of hold.

She was fitted with triple expansion engines of 5,000 horsepower. Her speed was fifteen knots an hour and she carried 1,500 first class, 100 second class and 800 steerage.

The Chicago's officers were: Captain, Arthur H. Hays; First Officer, J. K. Kavanagh; Surgeon, J. O. Kilgus; M. D.; Chief Steward, Allan McDermott.

PROCTOR SAID TO BE CHOSEN.

To Succeed to the Republican National Chairmanship.

The Vermont Senator Reported to Have Agreed to Serve.

OFFICIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—The Evening Washington special says Senator Proctor, of Vermont, ex-Secretary of War, will probably be chairman of the Republican National Committee.

A prominent Republican Senator is authority for the statement that Mr. Proctor was asked by Mr. Campbell, Mr. Carter and others to accept the place, and that he consented last night to do so.

Mr. Proctor is not a member of the National Committee, but it is understood that Mr. Colburn, the Vermont member, has signified his willingness to step aside and let Mr. Proctor take his place. Mr. Proctor will also be chairman of the Executive Committee, which Mr. Campbell is expected to announce today, and which will meet in New York on July 15.

Among the members of the Executive Committee will be Chris Magee, of Pittsburgh; Commissioner Carter has declined not to accept the place of Secretary, and it is understood that Mr. Magee will be appointed to that position.

Mr. Bliss, of New York, will be the Treasurer. Other members of the Executive Committee will be Mr. Manly, of Maine; Mr. Clark, of Wisconsin; Mr. Sutherland, of New York; Mr. Fessenden, of Connecticut; Mr. Kerns, of Missouri; and one or two others not yet fully agreed upon.

Mr. Campbell said to an Evening World reporter: "The report that there is to be a conference here today is news to me. I know nothing about it. There is to be a meeting, I think, here in Washington and the West, and I know they are all here on private business."

Has your successor been decided upon, Mr. Campbell? "Not that I am aware of. I will say, more, that I have no more idea who will be chairman than you have, possibly not as much."

Will the names of the Executive Committee be given out today? "You may be absolutely certain that the names of the Executive Committee will not be given out today. I will say, more, that I have no more idea who will be chairman than you have, possibly not as much."
